

Out of School Suspension

Out-of-school suspension is a formal disciplinary action for dealing with extremely disruptive and/or dangerous behavior. It involves short-term exclusion of a student from class, riding on a school bus, and from attending up to a maximum of five school days. The student may be considered as trespassing if present on school grounds during the period of the suspension.